

EMPLOYABILITY PATH

Workforce New York City Jobs Agency

TU ASESOR VIRTUAL
EN SERVICIOS PARA
EL MIGRANTE

They had resources on career fairs to attend within the company and another resource on how to know your rights as a New Yorker.

Any service provided is free, charging for anything is not allowed (Example: you need help making a resume, the agency will help you without charge for it). They have 18 centers in any borough system such as

This agency requirement to continue is: you must be a resident of New York City (proof will be needed), you must be over 18 years old, you need work authorization that requires a social one because some companies do not accept only ITIN numbers.

:: Staten Island, Queens, Brooklyn, Manhattan y Bronx ::

Job opportunity

- They have CNA (certified nursing assistant) jobs that require English.
- Concession stands in Astoria must be bilingual.
- Construction - OSHA needed
- Industrial Transportation: There are 6 centers that work with JFK Airport they have jobs for ramp agents who load luggage, help disinfect planes upon arrival and when they land.

Offers

- Training in career counseling, OSHA, they help you find employment and they have jobs available but you need the requirements to continue.
- Being able to speak English is preferred as most jobs require the language. The advantages of this agency are that the services are free, you save time and money.
- The agency partners with organizations that help with ESL classes.

¿How can we help you?

W: (929) 472-4403

E: teayudamos@upaplan.com

